

Early Years Foundation Stage

Reflective, quality and continuous Provision

William House offers a continuous provision from birth to five years, whereby resources are available for the children to access independently, providing a balance of child-initiated and adult-led activities.

Practitioners sensitively support and extend learning through play experiences.

A Unique Child
Positive relationships
Enabling Environments
Learning and Development